

A. Listen to the first part of an interview.

1. Answer the following questions based on what you just heard.

a. Why is knowing about the experience of our parents important?

.....

b. Why are our parents our first teachers?

.....

2. Listen again and write down three important points mentioned.

B. Now read the rest.

Yet another important thing is our heritage and culture. We have much to learn from our parents regarding our heritage, to be proud of our past. This heritage and history brings a sense of belonging. Most importantly, it brings us a sense of identity of our past and the responsibility to protect it for our future generations. What I can add at the end is the role of our parents' morals, values, and principles in our lives. Our elders have either learned, created or have been brought up with a set of morals, values and principles in their lives. Our elders want the best for us and they are willing to tell us what set of rules and guidelines have made them successful, and hopefully, peaceful.

3. Underline all 'passive tenses'. Make three questions about the important points. Then answer them.

C. Work in pairs. Ask and answer.

How can we learn from our parents in our lives?

How important is it to protect our culture for our next generation?

Why are our parents our blessing?
